Canadian Centre for Women in Science, Engineering, Trades and Technology

Coming To Halifax ...

The WinSETT Centre Leadership Series is coming to Halifax.

If you are a woman in Science, Engineering, Trades or Technology and you want to improve your leadership skills to reach your potential, this is the program for you. Built upon the experiences of Canadian women in SETT and proven across the country, this is the second time the full series has been offered in Halifax and we are delighted to introduce our newest workshop "Emotional Intelligence".

What People Say...

I highly recommend the WinSETT Leadership Program workshops, both for women in SETT fields as well as their employers. The workshops are well organized and led by knowledgeable and engaging facilitators and the information presented is current and effective.

Christine Plourde, Workshop Participant

We're the Real Deal...

WinSETT has delivered 100s of Leadership workshops from Victoria to St. John's since 2012.

We are focused on giving women the tools to successfully navigate their SETT careers and leverage their leadership potential.
